Evotec and The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society enter into a strategic research collaboration

Hamburg, Germany – 05 November 2013: Evotec AG (Frankfurt Stock Exchange: EVT, TecDAX, ISIN: DE0005664809) announced today that it has entered into an integrated research collaboration with The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society ("LLS"). Evotec will support one of LLS's Screen-to-Lead Programs ("SLP"). In this collaboration, Evotec partners with LLS to support selected programmes and principal investigators with resources for high-throughput screening and optimisation of small molecules into drug-like compounds. Evotec delivers an industrialised, cutting-edge, comprehensive and unbiased drug discovery infrastructure to support innovation efficiency as part of a fully integrated solution.

Dr Mario Polywka, Chief Operating Officer of Evotec, commented: "We are excited to initiate this collaboration and support The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society and their investigators. We are confident that our experienced scientists and innovation platform can deliver results for LLS, their investigators and ultimately patients."

Amy Burd, Ph.D., Executive Director of Research at LLS, added: "LLS is pleased to be working in collaboration with Evotec to advance our Screen-to-Lead programs. We feel that Evotec has the necessary skills and capabilities to offer significant value to support these projects."

No financial details were disclosed.
