Your processed data:

We collect core personal data that is necessary to carry out the application, which is: Name, address, gender, phone number. We collect this information from you directly or via a third party to whom you entrusted your application data for reasons of application. Due to legal obligations (e.g. Art. 2 para. 2 of Regulation (EC) No. 881/2002), we are not allowed to provide financial resources directly or indirectly to natural or legal persons, groups or organizations, nor to allow them to participate in research activities. In the event of a violation of this, there is a risk that Evotec could be excluded from certain markets. To prevent this, we check our applicants against the so-called sanctions and terror lists using software provided by a service provider. We have concluded a data processing agreement with the service provider so that the data of our employees is processed strictly in accordance with our instructions only for this purpose and is not passed on to any third party. In the event of a name match, we check each individual case thoroughly before taking any action. The legal basis for the processing is Art. 6 para. 1 lit. f GDPR.

We also collect and process any other data you provide us voluntarily within the course of your application which is e. g. your CV, your cover letter or your picture. If you do not declare your voluntary consent to the further processing of your data in our Talent Pool, your data will only be transferred to the corresponding human resource officer and line manager, who is responsible for your application. The legal basis for this additional processing is Art. 6 para 1 lit. a GDPR. You may revoke your consent for the Talent Pool at any time by sending us an email to the site where the position you applied is based. Your data will then be deleted within 1 month:

You also have the right to have your data deleted if one of the reasons stated in Article 17 of the GDPR applies, e. g. if the data is no longer required for the purposes pursued.
